COMMENTS:

Ivan McIntyre stated he was a first time candidate and in error failed to disclose his income on the report. Once he received his notice he contacted the BOE Staff for instructions on how resolve the matter. the issue. He was told that his corrected forms were accepted and "that everything was in order". He then received a late fee letter and contacted the BOE Staff and learned that although he corrected the forms, he submitted the correction after the deadline. He now understands the need to submit accurate reporting, and asks the Ethics Board to waive his fine since it was his first time running for office and was learning all the rules and regulations on his own, while working a full time job.

Subject: Request for waiver of Late fees

I am submitting this request in response to receiving a Notification of Delinquency late fee. During the course of filing my disclosure statement I made an error in how I listed my incomes. I received the correct instructions from the State's Disclosure Division and submitted the amended forms as requested. The forms were accepted and I was notified that everything was in order. Upon receiving the notification of late fee assessment, I contacted the Disclosure Division and was advised that although the corrected information had been received, it was after the deadline.

I understand the need for complete and accurate reporting. I ask for this waiver as this was my first time as a candidate for office and was learning the rules and regulations on my own. I unfortunately was also working full time shift work as a non-civil service employee and misunderstood my time limits.

I hope that it may be considered and a waiver of this fee and incident be given to me in this matter. I look forward to future candidacy in upcoming elections.

Thank you in advance,

Ivan McIntyre
